FAR APART ON THE OYSTER MATTER

Maryland and Virginia Conferees Do Not Agree and Tie Vote Results.

POTOMAC WAS NOT CLOSED

Proposition Lost in Virginia Committee is the Claim to Close Chesapeake.

There is apparently a wide difference commission, as to what was actually done seemingly of opinion that the body de-cided to close dredging in the Potomac body.

While they are divided, the division is even, and four of them claim that the proposition, in accordance with all parliamentary practice, was lost on the tie vote which was had. They will therefore make no report on this question to the Virginia Legislature. Delegate George Mason, of Westmore-

Delegate George Mason, of Westmoreland, not only takes this view, but on yesterday arose in the House to a question of personal privilege and protested against a report in an afternoon paper, which put the committee in the attitude of having voted to close the river for two years. Senators Walker and Gunter and John R. Rew are of the same mind and faith, while the other four Virginians, Messrs. J. L.
Tallaferro, Green, Thornhill and Dickin, son, voted in the affirmative, and claim the river is and ought be closed by the action taken.

Agree On One Matter

ndeed, according to Virginia members, e conference amounted to but little, the the conterence amounted to but little, the only matter upon which there was united action having been to recommend legislation looking to increasing penalties for the violation of existing dredgings. It is true the conference decided to recommend that the Virginia cull laws be made applicable to Maryland, but this will require no action by the Virginia Legislature.

ence do not view with any degree of seriousness, the bill of Senator Brewing

The Maryland View.

The Maryland View.

The following special on the subject was received from Baltimore last night by the Times-Dispatch:

"Senator Linthicum, of Baltimore, who was chairman of the joint meeting of Virginia and Maryland legislatures held in Richmond this week, to-day introduced in the Maryland Senate a bill to prohibit dredging in Chesapeake Bay for two years, beginning October 31st. The bill makes it a felony for any person to take systers from the waters of Maryland with any instrument other than tongs. ysters from the waters of Maryland with any instrument other than tongs or a period of two years, beginning for a period of two years, beginning Detober 31, 1996. During this time no Bredges, scrapes or other tools, except plain hand tongs shall be used to take bysters off the bottoms, the measure provides.

Will Be Ratified.

"Some of the Maryland delegates seam to fear that the opposition of several of the Virginia conferees to the Potomac formally ratify the agreement without great opposition.

"In order to be prepared for a non-concurrence on the part of the Virginia Legislature, Senator Brewington has in preparation a bill to close the Chesapeake Bay to dredgers for two years, the purpose being to drive Maryland dredgers into the Potomac River, the only waters left in which they could operate. With such an army of dredgers at work the beds in the Potomac would be depleted in a short time, and Virginia would be glad to come to terms,

"Mr. Brewington also has a bill imposing a tax of $5 an acre on all cultivated beds. This, with the proposition to close the bay, will, he thinks, render unnecessary any further oyser legislation."

FIERCE BATTLE ON OVER REW CRABLAW

Patron Springs Sensation in Committee and Puller Denounces Publication As to His Bill,

There is a fierce fight in the Senate Committee on Fish and Game over the Rew crab bill closing the season for taking crabs from the waters of Virginia from October to April, which has already passed the House.

There are some features of the contest which border well-night upon the sensational, and more may come out on this line before the battle is over.

The committee held a session yesterday afternoon and will continue the hearing to-night at 8 o'clock. The patron of the bill, Hon, John R. Rew, of Accomac, sprung something of a sensation yesterday by reading before the committee letters from constituents protesting against certain petitions purporting to have been secured against the bill, when the letters alleged the signers were not well informed and educated people, and were told that the paper sought to felleve them of certain taxes now imposed upon oystermen.

The member from Account has some more thunder which he proposes to invoke later on if the occasion shall seem to require it, to require it.

The Puller bill, forbidding the redistricting of cities into wards, except once in five years, is still an object of much discussion around the Legislature, and especially among the Norfolk contingent.

The member patronizing the measure is much incensed over an article in the Norfolk Dispatch of yesterday, which be thinks impugns to him improper motives in offering it, and he made the fact known to the House yesterday afternoon in no uncertain terms. He sent up to the clerk's desk and had read the article referred to, and then with much feeling denounced it as a slander upon him. "That article," he said, "is victous and slanderous, and no one knows it better than the man who wrote it."

Delegate Owens of Prince Edward.

than the man who wrote it."

Delegate Owens, of Prince Edward, feets very much elated over the fact that when the general appropriation bill passed the House not a single objection was interposed against the annuity to the State Femule Normal School. He is also gratified at the many kind expressions on all sides of the opinion that this institution deserves the most liberal policy in the way of appropriations, so that the great work it has done in the past and the good it is destined to do in the future can be felt in every part of Virginia in the building up of education.

Hon, Pembroke Pettit, of Fluvanna, yesterday offered in the House a joint resolution amending section, 44 of the Constitution so as to provide that no corporation attorney shall be eligible to election to the General Assembly. The language of the amendment is: "Shall vacate any such office held by him, and no person employed on a salary of retained as attorney by any corporation shall be eligible to election to either house of the General Assembly."

Mr. Pettit says a lawyer cannot serve the State as Commonwealth's attorney and be a member of the Legislature, and he believes corporation attorneys should be cut out as well. Hon, Pembroke Pettit, of Fluyanna, Announcement of the appointment of Major James D. Patton, of this city, to a term of five years, beginning March 1st, as a member of the Board of Directors of the State penitentiary was made yesterday in the Senate in an official communication from Governor Swanson. Major Patton succeeds Mr. Robert L. Winston.

Interesting suggestion of a possible new investigation are contained in a somewhat mysterious bill offered in the Senate yesterday by Mr. Keezell, of Rockingham, to prohibit unlawful agreements or combinations on the part of contractors with the State. When questioned about his bill the Rockingham senator was reticent to a degree, but eventually referred incidentally and without specifically connecting the two, to the reported large advances demanded on the State printing contracts. This aroused the belief that the bill, though general, is aimed at a suspected local printing trust, the existence of which is printing trust, the existence of which is being monted.

The Keezell bill provides that — It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to enter into any agreement, combination or other arrangement or understanding for the purpose of advancing, or the tendency of which would be to advance, the prices to be paid by the State for any work whatsoever to be done by or for the State. Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of the act will be deemed of the act, either before the grand jury or the court in such prosecution, shall be proceeded against for any offense committed before the giving of such evidence, but such witness shall be compelled to testify, and for refusing to answer any questions, may by the court be fined a sum not exceeding $500 and confined in still for a term not exceeding either states. fined in jail for a term not exceeding six

A bill offered in the Senate yesterday by Mr. Sadler, of Powhatan, makes it a misdemeanor for an persor, residing in the State to change his name or assume another name unlawfully or without complying with the provisions of the act touching this matter. Penalty is fixed in the shape of a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100. Upon a repetition of the offense the violator of the law will be confined in jail not exceeding sixty days.

An assistant superintendent for the State Farm to be appointed by the Board of Directors of the State Penitentiary is provided in a bill offered in the Senate yesterday by Mr. Sadler, of Powhatan. The salary of the assistant will be $50 a month. He will execute bond in the penalty of $10,000. His term of office will begin and expire with that of the superintendent of the farm. The assistant will also act as bookkeeper at the farm.

A resolution has been prepared and will be offered in the Senate to-day or to-morrow calling for an extension of the present session of the General Assembly for fifteen days. The resolution, which will require a three-fifths vote, will un-questionably be voted down by an overwhelming majority.

HUMPTY-DUMPTY IS COMING

Great Drury Lane Spectacle at Academy All Next Week.

The "County Chairman," with Macylyn Arbuckle in the title role, showed to a slender but intensely enthusiastic audience at the Academy last night.
George Ade wrote this play and it only goes to show what a close observer a humorist can be. He has taken county politics and placed it on the stage, weaved in it characters all know, and with it that horse-sense humor that makes it unique and delightful.

It doesn't make any difference whether they chose to call that 'village Antioch or not. All know where it happened end every politician in the audience was in that contest, for the play is neither a misstatement or a caricature 8f rural politics in its portrait.

The company is absolutely without fault, and if a man wants to find fault he must needs go elsewhere. Of course, things go by comparison. Some one may be more able to portray Jim Hackler, to put more genial humor, more Laghearted sympathy and gendle pathos in the part than Macklyn Arbuckle, but any one who saw last night's performance will not believe it. Actors may be selected who can better support him, but its doubtful, and there may be a better 'inigger' delineator than Willis P. Sweatman in the part of Sassafras Livingston, but Richmond has not seen him.

Mr. Abuckle, at the close of the third act, was forced by repeated calls to make a spec.h.

After making a few complimentary act, was forced by repeated calls to make a special.

After making a few complimentary allusions to Virginia, the birth place of his mother, he referred to his pride in the play and in his support. He said that he was especially proud of the cleanliness of the play, because in giving up his law practice to follow the stage he had resistered, a vow never to go into anything but clean drama and he believed that such plays, as exemplified by the "County Chairman," could be found in the writings of our American dramatists and that foreign uncleanliness was neither necessary or desirable.

The "County Chairman" shows again this afternoon and to-night.

A Colossal Show.

this afternoon and to-night.

A Colossal Show.

Klaw & Erlanger's colossal Drury Lane spectacle of "Humpty Dumpty" will make its premier bow in this city at the Academy beginning next Monday night, and continue throughout the week. This is the greatest production of its kind that has yet been seen in America, and the only one of the great Drury Lane spectacles that has ever been brought to this city in its entirety, and with the original American cast and ensemble, which numbers some 350 people. It is staged in three acts and fitteen scenes, an nearly 2,600 costumes are worn during its presentation. The scenery was painted by the greatest artists in London and New York, and the costuming represents the most artistic work of the leaders of this art in this country and abroad.

"Humpty Dumpty" is a mighty merger of rollicking fun, sparkling music and spectacular magnificence. In addition to the wide variety of specialty and musical features, there are two great ballets and a wonderfully beautiful transformation. A distinctive feature of the performance is the marvelous troupe of aerialists known as hie Grigolaits flying ballet, whose tableaux and posings in the air form one of the most remarkable sensations ever seen in a theatrical performance. The sale of seats is now in progress and promises to equal that of "Ben Hur," another of the Klaw & Erlanger spectacles.

Theatrical Gossip.

"Under Southern Skies" comes to the Academy of Music to-morrow matinee and night. The company is the same that has been presenting the play for several years and is said to be capable. The play tells a pretty story of Southern life.

At the Bijou next week Lottie Williams will be seen in her new dress, "My Tomboy Girl," a comedy drama that is even better than the "Shop Girl," the play that floated Miss Williams to fame in the popular price houses.

The "Humpty Dumpty" company will arrive here on Sunday midnight from Atlanta. It requires fourteen cars to transport the commany and paraphermalia. The train will be in two sections, the first consisting of the baggage and scenery cars and the second of Pullmans and coaches carrying the members of the organization. The Association's Executive Committee in Session in Raleigh.

GIVEN ELABORATE DANQUET

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., February 22.—The next annual session of the North Carolina Bankers' Association will be held at Toxaway, June 19th, 20th and 21st. This decision was reached this afternoon at a meeting of the Executive Committee at the Yarborough Hotel.

Morehead and Toxaway were the places considered, and it required a recess of the committee to await replies to important telegrams sent during the morning session to settle the matter in favor of Toxaway.

During the recess there was a banquet at 2 o clock, served complimentary to the visiting bankers by the members of the Raleigh Clearing House, and was quite an elaborate affair. The guests were welcomed by Col. Charles E. Johnson, on the part of the Raleigh bankers, and the response was by Mr. C. N. Evans, of Wilmington, president of the association, chairman of the committee.

Chairman H. C. Dockery, of the North Carolina, Cotton-Growers' Association, to-day announced that President Harvey Jordan, of the Southern Association, will spend three days in North Carolina, speaking at Tarboro and Goldsboro March 2nd and Raleigh March 2nd.

The State offices were closed to-day in honor of Washington's birthday.
